cotton spinning to the Derwent Valley, transforming Belper the modern-day skyscraper! until 31 Oct daily 11am-4pm belpernorthmill.org 01773 880474

Chatsworth

hatsworth is one of the great houses of Britain with a vast collection of paintings, furniture and treasures, priceless items collected over the centuries by different generations of the Dukes of Devonshire Chatsworth's landscaped gardens are a joy - get lost in the maze and look out for impressive sculptures, the long water cascade and the spectacular Emperor Fountain. And there's a farmyard to delight the little ones.

until 9 Nov daily 11am-5pm (from 10.30am 25 May-2 Sep) chatsworth.org 01246 565300 change at Bakewell to TM Travel 218 bus ith so many great places to go and things to do along the entire length of our scenic sixes route out of Derby, you're really spoilt for choice. Characterful market towns, grand houses, the birthplace of What are you waiting for?

the industrial revolution, even a cable car ride and heritage

Gulliver's Kingdom

f you've got the little ones with you, aged 2-13, they'll love this theme park with exciting rides and attractions, including a pirates' play area, log flume and drop tower. There are fabulous views and, overlooking the valley some 300 feet below, not another log flume in Europe with views like this!

veekends until 28 Oct, Thurs-Sun July, daily Aug & school holidays gulliversfun.co.uk 01925 444888 his 1783 mill is the finest surviving example of an Arkwright cotton mill. It's now a working textile museum illustrating Arkwright's legacy, and includes a superb shopping village with four floors of designer clothes, gifts, food, plus a riverside restaurant.

Masson Mills

Mon-Sat 10am-5.30pm (museum closes 4pm) Sun 11am-5pm (museum closes 4pm) massonmills.co.uk 01629 581001 hat a way to go up in the world! - observation cable cars take you high above the gorge with stunning views of the Derwent Valley uide can take you on a fascinating journey rough the spectacular cavern system deep

Hear about the cavern's 350 million year history, climb the Prospect Tower, follow wooded trails and enjoy breathtaking nd Peak District as you rise. Up on top a nderground into the hillside.

until 3 Nov daily 10am-4.30pm heightsofabraham.com 01629 582365 the River Wye. It's steeped in history and romantic tales, and surrounded by beautiful Elizabethan terraced gardens. Still privately owned, with parts dating from the 12th century, Haddon Hall is probably the finest example of a fortified medieval manor house in existence. until 31 Oct daily 10.30am-5pm haddonhall.co.uk 01629 812855 a nostalgic ride on one of these great heritage railways, all just a bus ride away Most have specially themed events throughout the year that make it a day out for everyone to enjoy.

idland Railway Butterley eritage train rides take you to a bygone era. Discover railway museums, a signal box, a Victorian railwayman's church and more. There are narrow gauge, miniature and model railways, shops, cafés and a country park.

dlandrailway-butterley.co.uk 01773 570140

Ecclesbourne Valley Railway Wirksworth & Duffield his scenic line between Wirksworth and Duffield uses heritage diesel railcars, with some steam trains between Wirksworth and Ravenstor. Jump off at Ravenstor to take the uphill ramble along part of the High Peak Trail. check website for timetable e-v-r.com 01629 823076 obbled alleyways lead to hidden courtyards with old walks, high quality shops and range of cafés. Bakewell makes for a great day out. And don't forget to try a genuine Market day is Monday, as it has been for the last 700 years.

Farmers markets are held in the Agricultural Business Centre celebrating its bicentenary on 30 June at the Showground.

Themed 'farm to plate over 200 years.' As well as all the favourite things to see and enjoy, there'll also be workshops, children's games and a display of vintage farm machinery.

Bakewell Carnival is on the first Saturday in July and don't ichard Arkwright's first mill complex was really the

Matlock & Matlock Bath

There are interesting shops to and the riverside setting in a steer

Saturday and Sunday. As darkness down the River Derwent, a magical falls small decorated boats float

And come here on Boxing Day to see people get wet in the raft race held every year - it's a real hoot!

nose around cafés and restaurants to keep you refr gorge is quite spectacular.

Thoughout September and October Matlock Bath has its famous illuminations every experience not to be missed.

there's a traditional market on Tuesdays and Fridays in the Hall Leys Park has a boating lake, mini-golf, play area and miniature railway. On the third Saturday of every month you can buy from producers some of the finest, freshest,

A mile or so south of Matlock is Matlock Bath - it has quite a continental vibe and visitors have flocked here since the late 17th century, including Queen Victoria, twice!

tastiest local produce at the farmers' market held there.

Market Hall and a craft and flea market on Saturdays.

birthplace of the modern factory system, and what happened here in the 1770s changed the world we live in.

Cromford Mill is now a UNESCO World cafés, exhibitions, guided tours and

In the stunning Arkwright Experience, using CGI technology, you can hear the great man tell of his inventions and 01629 823256

until 4 Nov daily 11am-4.30pm

(opens 10.30am July/August) from 5 Nov 11.30am-4pm cromfordmills.org.uk

Heritage Site with visitor attractions, shops, Bakewell Agricultural & Horticultural Society will be Bakewell Pudding - scrumptious!

on the last Saturday each month.

miss the arts festival in August.

Cromford Mill

✓ stone buildings. With riverside ravel on the UK's only double track, main line, heritage railway, the only place in the world where full-size steam engines can be seen passing each other. Try a First Class Restaurant Car lunch - book ahead. There iscover friendly independent shops as well as more are special events all year, including Steam Galas, Peppa Pig, Bonfire Night and 1940s Wartime Weekends. familiar names here on the edge of the Peak District. Matlock is actually the county town of Derbyshire, and weekends, public holidays & selected weekdays in the summer gcrailway.co.uk 01509 632323

Great Central Railway Loughborough

skylink Derby skylink Nottingham Kinchbus 9 + 0.5 mile walk 🥂 to Great Central Road team trains run throughout the year betwee Matlock and Rowsley South on this 4 mile section of the old Midland Railway main line that once connected London with Manchester. ook out for specially themed events.

il 4 Nov daily 11am-5pm (10.30am 27 May-3 Sep)

Ashbourne

Street with fine Georgian houses, almshouses and overhanging the street, a famous Georgian coaching inn once frequented by Dr Johnson and Boswell. The town has a wide

The Ashbourne Show is on 17 August 2019, a great day out, and remember the absolutely mad but such fun Shrovetide

Football to be held in February 2020 - it has to be seen to be St Oswalds Church, one of the glories of Derbyshire.

Look for the inn signs of the Green Man and Black's Head range of shops and, of course, numerous pubs.

Chesterfield

street names.

ind out how the famous medieval streets such as The crooked spire got its twist, Shambles for unique independent shops, or visit Vicar Lane and The Pavements for your favourite high

Or bargain hunt in Chesterfield

Market, one of the largest open air markets in England, every There's a flea market njoy the vibrant mix of big brand and independent shopping choices in the Square. There's a market there six days a week.

Four Seasons Shopping Centre, St Peters Retail Park, the Rosemary Centre, and in streets surrounding the Market

On the weekend of 31 August / 1 September Mansfield Garden & Craft Festival 2019 takes place inside two large marquees in the Market Place, and every day from 30 July to 25 August 66 Ayup! red arrow is your fast and stylish and for those looking for some late-night delights or a round-the-clock commute

There's no stopping you!

ver - red arrow express coach between Derby & Nottingham.

We run every 10 mins during the day, we run 24 hours.

the Market Place becomes a beach for Life's a Beach!

on Thursdays, an artisan market on the last Sunday of the month and a farmers'

Monday, Friday or Saturday.

then wander through narrow nong the narrow streets in this lovely market town - markets are held on Thursdays and Saturdays - is Church riginally an Augustinian abbey, this was the poet Lord Byron's home from 1808 to 1814. There are Victorian room settings to see as well as his private apartments.

Follow meandering paths past lakes and waterfalls, rockeries and formal gardens in the extensive grounds. There's a monument to Byron's favourite dog, Boatswain, on what Byron believed was the site of the altar of the priory church.

The Abbey hosts a variety of special events and temporary exhibitions throughout the year.

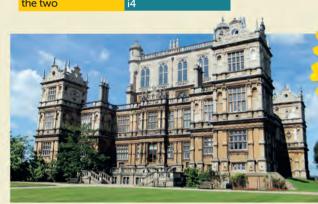

weekends & public holidays 12-4pm daily 9am-5pm (closed 29 November café and shop daily 10am-5pm (closes 4pm winter) newsteadabbey.org.uk 01623 455900

Wollaton Hall

his spectacular Elizabethan mansion with its own deer park is on the outskirts of Nottingham. As well as the historic hall - Wayne Manor in the Batman film The Dark Knight Rises you'll find Nottingham's Natural History Museum and Industrial Museum (open last Sunday of each month for steamings).

There are year-round special events and concerts in the park, too.

daily 11am-5pm wollatonhall.org.uk 0115 8763100

National Brewery Centre at Burton upon Trent elebrate the history of brewing and learn about the real life stories of the people who → helped to build Burton's world-renowned brewing reputation, and the role played by the egendary Burton-based Bass family.

daily 10am-5pm (4pm from 1 Oct)

Tutbury Castle

verlooking the winding River Dove with spectacular views, this castle dates back to Norman times. It played an important part in English history, in war and as one of the prisons of Mary Queen of Scots. The Civil War of the 17th century left the dramatic ruins we see today.

See the authentic Tudor garden and medieval herbery, the haunted Great Hall and King's Bedroom, and be enthralled by historic re-enactments on special days.

tutburycastle.com 01283 812129

Cricket World Cup

↑ atch some exhilarating cricketing action this summer when the ICC World Cup arrives V in Nottingham. Five matches are being played at the world-famous Trent Bridge, starting on Friday 31 May.

RHS Chatsworth Flower Show

o on a bloomin' marvellous floral safari around the grounds of Chatsworth House when the estate welcomes back the RHS.

Think Pimms, strawberries and cream, maybe a few gnomes, and fabulous flowers.

5-9 June 2019 rhs.org.uk/chatsworth

Chatsworth Country Fair

njoy one of the most spectacular outdoor events in the country.

_ There'll be vintage cars, mounted hot air balloons, fairgrounds, dog shows and exhibitions celebrating Derbyshire

30 August – 1 September 2019

Wirksworth Festival

nis historic market town throws open its doors and invites you to see some great art in a truly wonderful place, featuring international and local artists. Exhibits are cosy cottages to majestic churches, shop windows to disused quarries.

6-15 September 2019 showcased in every conceivable space from games, exhilarating plane aerobatics, Windies v Pakistan Friday 31 May England v Pakistan Monday 3 June ustralia v Windies Thursday 6 June India v New Zealand Thursday 13 June

Australia v Bangladesh Thursday 20 June

Expert guides take you through the brewing process and show you steam engines and vintage vehicles that helped the development of the industry. The William Worthington microbrewery brings the tour up to the present day - with the chance to sample some great local ales brewed on site!

nationalbrewerycentre.co.uk 01283 532880

Derby Festé

his colourful street festival returns to Derby, transforming the city into a vibrant playground of circus performances, live music, comedy and dance. It's a jam-packed weekend for everyone to enjoy.

27-28 September 2019 derbyfeste.com

Nottingham Goose Fair

his enormous, noisy, energetic legendary funfair is a mustgo-to fixture in the region's calendar -over 500 attractions from all-time classics to new white-knuckle rides.

Oh, and don't forget to treat yourself to the fair's popular nushy peas!

arly October 2019

bars, proper pubs,

Voyage through abandoned shipwrecks and sea caves ndoor courses. Perfect for families, date-nights and to conquer two 18-hole nightclubs and live music After hitting the shops venues galore, Derby and you can hit the green for Nottingham really come to life some fun and frolics. It's not when darkness falls. There are the taking part that counts, plenty of places for you to be it's the winning. shaken and stirred, and with red arrow now running 24 Paradise Island hours between the two cities Golf

See the map side for our other 24 hour buses.

Annie's Burger

there's no excuse to go home early.

Shack Nottingham & [mate-nights. Born and raised in New England, Annie serves up Lost City Adventure Golf Nottingham Perfect for budding explorers and adventurers of all ages, this is in the Cornerhouse, with two 18-hole indoor adventure golf courses.

tep through the broom and find yourself in a lively, table service and unusual drinks. Before you know alter dark

serves everything from neon signs, leather armchairs

. lots of lampshades.

vibrant Sadler Gate in the heart of Derby serves craft

BEAR Derby beers, classy cocktails and Bang in the centre of pizzas inspired by the Big the city's Cathedral Quarter, BEAR effortlessly blends day and night, serving artisan coffee, cocktails, beers, breakfast, brunch and lunch. Their bottomless prosecco

Bunk Nottingham & Derby

It's the union we've all been waiting for; cocktails and chicken wings. With retro gaming stations, tropical plants and rustic décor. Bunk is beautifully unique.

Nottingham | Derby

Sunday brunch is a classy

Stretton

66 If you're looking to explore rentbartonland zigzag is our really nlimited travel on all of our routes. 🤊 🤊 ood day ticket that gives you valid Monday-Fridays after 9am, anytime weekends and bank holiday Mondays

(excludes pronto)

Newton

ATIONAL BREWERY CENTRE

Burton upon Trent

the villager V3 X38

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 km

1 2 3 4 5 miles waitless know when your bus is coming search for hugo on

Google play Store

CANAL WALKS AT FINDERN AND WILLINGTON (6 t just over 4 miles this is an enjoyable walk along the Trent 🔲 & Mersey Canal to the pretty village of Findern. There are two areas of woodland, where paths allow visitors to walk round and enjoy the abundant wildlife. Take a stroll around Mercia Marina, where on the boardwalk you'll find cafés and restaurants, a large farm shop and boutique retailers.

One for the road... he East Midlands is world renowned for its local breweries. Derbyshire alone has more breweries per capita than any other place in the UK. Most of these bs, which means you can sample locally produced tipples in a number of quirky, cosy and friendly locations that are just a bus ride away...

This Derby-based brewery offers some great ales to add to your must-try list. The Ay Up (or Ey Up depending on where craft-keg hop-monsters.

Castle Rock

Vat and Fiddle Brewery Tap Nottingham The Horse & Plough Bingham
The Embankment Trent Bridge The Cricketers Rest Kimberley dedicated and friendly teams.

Blue Monkey Brewery

With 20 CAMRA & SIBA awards to their name, when you visit one of their pubs, expect to find locally brewed beers, from traditional-style cask ales, through to artisan hand-bottled specials and cutting edge

Organ Grinder

If you're not happy, for whatever reason, just ask your driver for your money back.

Open this way for a map of our network of bus routes, plus some ideas for lovely

Look on the other side for ideas of some great places to go and which walks you can get to by bus.

Here at company zigzag is our really good anytime at for £6.50. Just buy a zigzag on weekends & the first bus you travel on and Mondays have zigzag duo and zigzag (excludes pronto) group if you're out with friends trentbarton.co.uk unlimited travel ticket, that means you can travel anywhere across trentbartonland all day after 9am go anywhere you want. We also and family. Find out more at

If you've got an English National Concessionary Pass, travel on our buses is free after 9.30am in the week but anytime at weekends. (excludes red arrow) trentbarton

we're passionate together the best friendliest drivers – plus lots of lovely little extras for our customer – to uphold our reputation as the really good bus about bringing buses and the buses to catch.

Nottingham's largest independent brewery was true to their roots and all their venues are run by Chris Holmes - there are now 22 unique established in the 1970s by then CAMRA chairman ighamshire and beyond. They have stayed

Dancing Duck Brewery

Midlands

Shepshed

Long Whatton

Costock

Hoto

Loughborough

to Leicester

GREAT CENTRAL

Sutton Bonington

Airport

you're drinking) is a pale, hoppy ale that goes perfectly with some of their award-winning cutting-edge pub grub.

The Exeter Arms Derby The Devonshire Belper
The Crossing Burton
The Rectory Chesterfield

The Hole in the Wall Derby

Derby Brewing Company You can enjoy a range of locally brewed ales and beers in 4 relaxing pubs across Derby.

The Tap Derby The Greyhound Derby
The Kedleston Country House Derby