

what's on

in September

Summer may be coming to an end but there's still plenty to do in trentbarton land. Get arty at Wirksworth Festival, Derby Feste, or the Beyond Limits exhibition at Chatsworth.

Wirksworth Festival

Wirksworth, Derbyshire, 5-21 September

Over the last couple of years Wirksworth Festival has established itself as a key event in the East Midlands cultural calendar. Artists exhibit in every conceivable space in the town; houses, historic buildings, churches, shop windows, gardens, pubs and public spaces.

Get to Wirksworth on the sixes 6.1 from Derby, Belper or Matlock.

Beyond Limits Sculpture Exhibition

Chatsworth House, Derbyshire, 8 September-26 October

The beautiful gardens of Chatsworth House will again be home to more than 20 monumental sculptures by different artists from around the world.

Get there with our zigzag chatsworth - unlimited trentbarton land travel, a free return to Chatsworth House from Matlock on TM Travel buses 215/218 and a £2 discount on entry. Buy from the driver.

Ant & Dec's Saturday Night Takeaway

Capital FM Arena, Nottingham, 9 September

Ant and Dec will be taking their award winning ITV show on a national arena tour this summer, so you can experience Takeaway live on stage!

Catch any bus to Nottingham.

Shrek the Musical

Theatre Royal, Nottingham, 10-28 September

Based on the award-winning DreamWorks animation film, Shrek the Musical is this year's must-see show for all the family. Join our unlikely hero and his loyal steed Donkey as they embark on a quest to rescue the beautiful (if slightly temperamental) Princess Fiona from a fire breathing, love-sick dragon.

And remember, you can get discounted zigzag tickets when you buy your theatre tickets at trch.co.uk. Catch any bus to Nottingham.

Chesterfield Well Dressing

Chesterfield, 13-20 September

Head to scenic Chesterfield for this ancient custom unique to Derbyshire. Chesterfield began well dressing in 1864 when the Town Pump in the Market Place was decorated after a very dry summer. Displays take place at the 'Crooked Spire' Church porch and on the Market Place.

Getting to Chesterfield is easy, take the super-fast and comfy red arrow from Nottingham, Derby, Ripley or Alfreton.

Nottingham Comedy Festival

Nottingham, 19-27 September

Over the years Nottingham Comedy Festival has grown to include a wide variety of comedy in many different venues around both Nottingham and Nottinghamshire, aiming to bring together both brand new and well-established comedians and giving everyone an opportunity to enjoy comedy. This year's line-up includes 8pm Harriet Kemsley, Paul Chowdhry, Norman Lovett and Carl Donnelly.

what's on

in October

For all the button bashers out there October sees the return of the ever popular GameCity to Nottingham. Or, if you like your entertainment a little more traditional, there's Derby Folk Festival.

Derby Folk Festival

Cathedral Quarter, Derby, 3-5 October

Kate Rusby, Show of Hands and Steeleye Span headline this year's folk festival, and they'll also be craft fairs and workshops running alongside the music. Due to the fire at the Assembly Rooms this year's festival will take place at the Guildhall Theatre, on the Market Place and in the surrounding streets.
